HEISEY'S FRED HARVEY CRYSTAL

For many years I actually thought that Amber, except for the animals, meant Fred Harvey. I couldn't help thinking how boring and dull it must be to go into one of Fred's establishments and be faced with nothing but Amber glassware on the tables. On the other hand, tables in the display at Convention that were set mainly in Crystal with Amber pieces for accent were truly beautiful. Then I read in several issues of the Heisey News that Heisey sold more Crystal than Amber to Fred -- turns out that Fred not only served good wholesome food; he set a lovely table, too!

In the August, 1980, issue of Heisey News, Neila Bredehoft consolidated lists that had appeared in earlier issues. For the benefit of all Fred Harvey collectors, the consolidated list of Heisey Crystal purchased by Mr. Harvey:

PREZ SEZ....

Our March meeting was one of the best just coming off a beautiful All-Heisey Show and Sale. We had 29 members present. Some brought purchased pieces from the Show and bragged on their finds.

Before our meeting started we were surprised with a beautiful table of refreshments with a delicious cake in the center with decorations "Happy 50th Anniversary, Butch and Jim". Thanks to Mrs. Chris, assisted by Mrs. Jack Swetnam and Mrs. Bob Heflin. All very nice. The Jones' are two lovely persons. This club, as well as the Heisey Museum, appreciates all the long hours and hard work they have given to helping them be so successful.

The Show Committee hopes to have the final report on the show at this coming meeting. Our thanks to George Schamel and his committee for the efforts put forth in planning the show and to all the volunteers who made it run smoothly. And thanks to Tom Felt and Bob O'Grady for another striking display - this year's theme featured Heisey's earliest patterns. Thanks also for all the out-of-town members and friends who came from so far away when the weather was so uncertain. Hope to see you all again next year.

Hope to see you on the 8th.

Jim Dartner

Speaking of Amber, a couple of practical jokers among our dealers created some excitement at an earlier All-Heisey Glass Show held in an Alexandria, Virginia, Holiday Inn. A couple of our dealers, who shall remain nameless, managed to smuggle a pair of amber-colored salt/pepper shakers from the motel dining room. After the Authentication Committee had done its duty, these two scamps approached Jim and Sheri Van Es' booth, and while one distracted Jim's attention, the other placed the "Holiday Heisey/Amber" on one of Jim's tables. The opening crowd kept Jim and Sheri busy. Jim hadn't noticed the hot items in his booth until he was approached by a customer clutching the salt and pepper, demanding to know the price! Jim recalled he had a dickens of a time convincing the would-be owner of rare items that these had been smuggled from the motel dining room. I think he finally escorted the non-believer to the dining room and pointed out a similar set on each of the tables. For a number of years after that, one dealer in our show could expect to spy the "Holliday Heisey Amber" salt and pepper set in the booth, and, unless spotted before the opening crowd surged in, could expect to be faced with an excited customer clutching the set, demanding to know the price.
